

CATHEDRAL HOME
EST. 1910

EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL

build positive esteem that leads to student gains in school, mental health, and confidence

JOB DESCRIPTION

Support and build relationships with students through a trauma-sensitive school environment.

Support delivery of responsive, engaging curriculum to meet individual student needs through unique programs of study for core and elective coursework.

Offer consistent practice and positive regard to help students expand their academic abilities and self-esteem.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Promote student development through:

- lessons and curriculum that meet standards and individual needs
- a classroom environment built on rapport and positive relationships
- responsive, engaging, and flexible expectations of student behavior and academic achievement

Enhance trauma-sensitive school culture by:

- collaborating with stakeholders to promote student interests
- participating in development that enhances trauma sensitivity
- offering multiple avenues for students to access content and demonstrate success

QUALIFICATIONS

- Substitute Teacher Permit through Wyoming Professional Teaching Standards Board
- Experience with and passion to serve youth through trauma-sensitive education & pedagogy
- Clean background, drug, and child abuse registry checks
- Strong communication skills with proven background in time management and teamwork

WAGE & BENEFITS

The wage for this hourly, year-round position begins at $15 and is commensurate with certification & experience.

As part of the Education team, you will encourage students to believe in themselves while building academic skills.

Full-time employees are eligible for:

- 9 paid holidays, paid vacation and sick time
- medical, dental, and vision insurance
- retirement plan with employer match

Join a trauma-sensitive culture that actively works toward advancement and social justice through family-driven care.